

Privacy Policy

Updated at 01-11-2020

Danitech A/S (“Danitech”, “we,” “our,” or “us”) is committed to protecting your privacy. This Privacy Policy explains how your personal information is collected, used, and disclosed by Danitech.

This Privacy Policy applies to our website, and its associated subdomains alongside our application, Digital Control Platform. By accessing or using our platform, you signify that you have read, understood, and agree to our collection, storage, use, and disclosure of your personal information as described in this Privacy Policy and our Terms of Use.

What Information Do We Collect?

We collect information from you when you visit our website or register on our site.

- Name / Username
- Phone Number
- Email Address

How Do We Use The Information We Collect?

Any of the information we collect from you may be used in one of the following ways:

- To manage your account
- To assign you to the correct user group on the platform.
- To contact you with service emails such as recovering a forgotten password.
- To show an overview of the users in your user group and show an overview of the users in your associated user groups.

How do we store your data?

The platform is based on Microsoft Azure and we store your data in a database located in the northern Europe. The database is encrypted to ensure the integrity of your data.

We cannot, however, ensure or warrant the absolute security of any information you transmit to Digital Control Platform or guarantee that your information on the platform may not be accessed, disclosed, altered, or destroyed by a breach of any of our physical, technical, or managerial safeguards.

We will store your data for as long as we need it while you are still registered on the platform. If you choose to delete your account, we will remove the data within 60 days.

What are your data protection rights?

Danitech A/S would like to make sure you are fully aware of all of your data protection rights. Every user is entitled to the following:

The right to access – You have the right to request us for copies of your personal data. We may charge you a small fee for this service.

The right to rectification – You have the right to request that we correct any information you believe is inaccurate. You also have the right to request us to complete the information you believe is incomplete.

The right to erasure – You have the right to request that we erase your personal data, under certain conditions.

The right to restrict processing – You have the right to request that we restrict the processing of your personal data, under certain conditions.

The right to object to processing – You have the right to object to our processing of your personal data, under certain conditions.

The right to data portability – You have the right to request that we transfer the data that we have collected to another organization, or directly to you, under certain conditions.

If you make a request, we have one month to respond to you. If you would like to exercise any of these rights, please contact us at our email: dataprivacy@danitech.com
